

Catlin Australia

Kidnap and Ransom

Underwriting Appetite

- Companies with employees either travelling to or based in overseas countries
- High-profile or cash-rich companies
- Companies with threat of extortion – i.e. those working with sensitive information or high technology, or trading on the Internet
- Cover is on a 'claims made' basis and all policies are aggregated

Capacity

- Up to USD50,000,000 per claim, and in the aggregate

Coverage

- Kidnap – for the purposes of demanding ransom monies
- Extortion – for the purposes of demanding money with a threat to kill, injure, damage property, or release proprietary information
- Wrongful detention
- Hijack
- Death and dismemberment
- Consultant costs
- Additional cover for loss in transit; judgement, settlements and defence costs; business interruption (sub limited)

Steven Ward
Class Underwriter
Crisis Management

Steven began his Insurance career in 1989 at CE Heath (Aviation) Pty Limited, holding both underwriting and claims roles. After spending 3 years at Associated Marine Insurers (Agents) Pty Limited as an Underwriter, he joined AIG where he spent the next 12 years in various Underwriting and Management roles including NSW General Manager, Queensland General Manager and Regional Vice President – Crisis Management / Asia Pacific. Steven joined Catlin in 2009 as a Class Underwriter.

steven.ward@catlin.com
Direct (02) 8235 5129
Mobile 0448 244 210

Emma Pearce
Assistant Underwriter
Crisis Management

After completing a Bachelor of Business (Management) at the University of Western Sydney 2005, Emma commenced her insurance career at Catholic Church Insurances, working in the Sydney office as a Case Manager in the Workers' Compensation team. In 2008, Emma relocated to Auckland, New Zealand and spent six months working for AIG as a Travel Claims Examiner, before moving to the United Kingdom later that year. In August 2008, Emma took up a position at the Financial Ombudsman Service in London as an Insurance Adjudicator. In August 2009, Emma returned to Sydney and commenced work with Catlin in October 2009.

emma.pearce@catlin.com
Direct (02) 8235 5137

Catlin Australia
Level 19
83 Clarence Street
Sydney
NSW 2000
Australia

www.catlinaustralia.com

Catlin Group Limited
www.catlin.com